To Whom It May Concern,

This letter has been written to confirm the XK300 Medical Sensor, offered by Reassurance Solutions, is a sole source product. The sensor, web-based user-interface, and method for detecting presence, respiratory rate, and heart rate is only available from the XK300.

Xandar Kardian maintains all patents and intellectual property for their sensor and systems, and they exclusively partner with Reassurance Solutions in the United States Correctional Market to sell the product. There are no agents or dealers authorized to represent these products to anyone in corrections other than Reassurance Solutions.

If you desire additional information, please contact Xandar Kardian via email at info@xk.inc.

Sincerely,

Sam Yang
